1. Definitions

- 1.1. Unless the contrary intention appears, terms defined in the MSA Constitution and other MSA regulations are applicable to these regulations.
- 1.2. In addition, unless the contrary intention appears:
 - 1.2.1. 'Constitution' means the MSA Constitution;
 - 1.2.2. 'division president' means the president of each Division, or their nominee (who must be a member of the governing body of that Division);
 - 1.2.3. 'office-bearer' means an office-bearer of the MSA, under clause 32 of the Constitution;
 - 1.2.4. 'MSA Body' means a body established by or under the constitution, and includes the Divisions.

2. Authority

- 2.1. These regulations are made under clause 58 of the Constitution for the purpose of giving effect to Part 9 of the Constitution and related provisions..
- 2.2. In addition:
 - 2.2.1. regulations prescribing additional direction and responsibilities for office-bearers are made under subclause 34(16) of the Constitution; and
 - 2.2.2. regulations relating to sharing of positions are made under subclause 33(3) of the Constitution.

3. Applicability

- 3.1. These regulations are applicable to all office-bearers and members of MSA Bodies.

3.2. These regulations are effective immediately on adoption or alteration by the MSC.

4. General Conduct

- 4.1. Office-bearers and members of MSA bodies are expected to:
- 4.1.1. comply with the Constitution with directions given under authority of the Constitution; and
 - 4.1.2. comply with all regulations and policies as adopted by MSC; and
 - 4.1.3. not behave in an intimidating or inappropriate manner towards any other individual.

5. Training

- 5.1. The MSA recognises that the efficient and successful operation of the organisation depends upon the transfer of skills from one year's office-bearers to the next.
- 5.2. The MSA recognises that with regular changes to legislation and the rules associated with corporate governance and director's responsibilities, this training must be regularly reviewed at the discretion of MSA professional staff, subject to clause 17 of these regulations
- 5.3. The MSA will:
- 5.3.1. annually organise a mandatory induction program for office-bearers-elect, in the year of the election of the office-bearers-elect; and
 - 5.3.2. ensure the President, President-elect and Executive Officer will be responsible for the development and induction of the year's program; and
 - 5.3.3. encourage on campus full participation in the program by office-bearers-elect; and
 - 5.3.4. encourage any members of MSA bodies that are not office-bearers-elect to attend if they wish.
- 5.4. The training period will be from December 1 to December 31.
- 5.5. Office-bearers-elect that fail to attend the training or satisfy the requirements of the training, subject to the opinion of the Executive Officer, will not be paid honorarium until the training is complete.
- 5.6. Office-bearers-elect will not—
- 5.6.1. receive back-payment of their honorarium for failing to complete the training requirements by 31 December; and
 - 5.6.2. be required to submit reports to the MSC during the training period.

6. Role Outlines

- 6.1. Each office-bearer will have a 'Role Outline' that will detail the duties, responsibilities and expectations of their specific position, in addition to those outlined in the Constitution.
- 6.2. If an office-bearer is in breach of their Role Outline, they will be considered to be in breach of these regulations.
- 6.3. Each Role Outline will be attached to these regulations as Schedules.
- 6.4. During the MSA training period, each office-bearer will be required to review their Role Outline with their office-bearer-elect.

7. Reports

- 7.1. All office-bearers and division presidents will be required to submit to the MSC a list of yearly goals, which must:
- 7.1.1. align with their constitutional duties and role outline; and

- 7.1.2. include major department goals and activities for the year; and
- 7.1.3. be submitted by the third Thursday of January.
- 7.2. All office-bearers and divisions presidents must submit regular reports to the MSC in line with the following:
 - 7.2.1. regular reports will be submitted by the second Thursday of Even Months from the following:
 - 7.2.1.1 the President; and
 - 7.2.1.2 the Secretary; and
 - 7.2.1.3 the Treasurer; and
 - 7.2.1.4 the Education (Academic Affairs) Officer; and
 - 7.2.1.5 the Activities Chairperson;
 - 7.2.1.6 the Creative and Live Arts Officer; and
 - 7.2.1.7 the Welfare Officer; and
 - 7.2.1.8 the president of C&S, or their nominee;
 - 7.2.1.9 the president of Radio Monash, or their nominee; and
 - 7.2.1.10 the Editors of Lot's Wife.
 - 7.2.2. regular reports will be submitted by the second Thursday of Odd Months from the following:
 - 7.2.2.1 the Education (Public Affairs) Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.2 the Environment and Social Justice Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.3 the Women's Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.4 the Queer Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.5 the Indigenous Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.6 the Disabilities and Carers Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.7 the People of Colour Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.8 the Residential Community Officer; and
 - 7.2.2.9 the president of MUISS, or their nominee; and
 - 7.2.2.10 the president of MAPS, or their nominee.
- 7.3. For the purposes of regulation 7.2:
 - 7.3.1. "Even Months" means February, April, June, August and October; and
 - 7.3.2. "Odd Months" means March, May, July, September and November.
- 7.4. All regular reports submitted to the MSC must:
 - 7.4.1. align with their constitutional duties and role outline; and
 - 7.4.2. include an accurate summary of their actions and achievements since their last report; and
 - 7.4.3. include a detailed list of goals that can be reasonably expected to be completed by their next report; and
 - 7.4.4. include which of their assigned goals from their last report have been completed or not, and why.
- 7.5. All office-bearers and the division presidents will be required to submit to the MSC a final report for the year, which must
 - 7.5.1. align with their constitutional duties and role outline; and
 - 7.5.2. include an accurate summary of their actions and achievements throughout the year; and
 - 7.5.3. details regarding their ongoing handover with their corresponding Office-Bearers-elect; and

- 7.5.4. include an evaluation of their list of yearly goals and which of them have been completed or not, and why; and
- 7.5.5. must be submitted by the first Thursday of December.
- 7.6. Reports must not include personal attacks on other members of the organisation.
- 7.7. Office-bearers who have returned from conferences where they were participating in the conference within their role as an office-bearer are required to submit a Conference Report to the next meeting of the MSC. Where the next meeting is within a week of their return from conference, office-bearers are permitted to submit their Conference Report to the following meeting of the MSC.
- 7.8. Office-bearers or members of MSA bodies who sit on University Council or Academic Board:
 - 7.8.1. must submit a report on each meeting of that body to the next meeting of the MSC; but
 - 7.8.2. where the next meeting is within a week of the University committee meeting, the office-bearer or member of a MSA body are permitted to submit their report to the following meeting of the MSC.
- 7.9. All office-bearers and members of MSA bodies required to submit reports to the MSC must have their reports submitted and accepted by the MSC no later than one meeting after it was due.
- 7.10. All office-bearers, excluding Lot's Wife Editors, are required to submit reports to every edition of Lot's Wife.
- 7.11. The Editors of Lot's Wife must:
 - 7.11.1. outline the submission process for these reports at the start of the year; and
 - 7.11.2. give at least 2 weeks notice by email of every submission deadline to each Office-bearer; and
 - 7.11.3. give each office-bearer at a reminder by email of every submission deadline at least 72 hours but not more than 7 days before every submission deadline.

8. Honoraria

- 8.1. Under subclause 32(8) of the constitution, the MSC may only pay an honorarium to office-bearers directly elected by students.
- 8.2. The MSC will set the base honorarium of the following year's office-bearers, in consultation with the members of the Executive-elect, during October or November by a resolution passed by an absolute majority.
- 8.3. If the MSC fails to pass a resolution, then the base honorarium will remain at the same amount as the year before.
- 8.4. All office-bearers will be paid an honorarium from December 1 of the year they were elected until December 31 of the following year.
- 8.5. Before an office-bearer can receive their honorarium, they must sign an agreement that specifies the following:
 - 8.5.1. "I acknowledge that the honorarium that I will receive in my role as office-bearer is paid pursuant to the constitution and regulations of the MSA, and not under any employment contract."
- 8.6. The agreement specified in regulation 8.5 must be submitted to the Executive and the Secretary must ensure a copy of the agreement is kept for the duration of the office-bearer's term of office.
- 8.7. An office-bearer must not receive their honorarium until they have signed and submitted the agreement specified in regulation 8.5.

9. Hours of work

- 9.1. Any office-bearer that is paid an honorarium is expected to work approximately the number of hours that correlates with their pay fraction.
- 9.2. Office-bearers are required to ensure that they are accessible to students for a reasonable proportion of the hours they work.
- 9.3. If office-bearers have to work for an extended period of time off the university campus, they must first seek the approval of the MSC.
- 9.4. Office-bearers are required to indicate their available hours for the week on their office door or other visible location if they do not have an office-door.
- 9.5. All other members of MSA bodies are expected to make themselves accessible to students as much as possible, in accordance with their position.
- 9.6. All office-bearers must complete time sheets to ensure they are working the number of hours required as outlined in their position description.
 - 9.6.1. The time sheets must include:
 - 9.6.1.1 the time an office-bearer began work on any day; and
 - 9.6.1.2 the time an office-bearer finished work on that day; and
 - 9.6.1.3 the length of any breaks from working during that day; and
 - 9.6.1.4 the total length of time worked on that day; and
 - 9.6.1.5 a brief description of the work completed on that day.
 - 9.6.2. Each office-bearer must submit their time-sheets to the Secretary for each completed week before the submission deadline for the next scheduled MSC
 - 9.6.3. The Secretary must include a summary of the information from each office-bearer's time sheet in a report to MSC, noting specifically if any office-bearers have not completed their required number of hours and how many hours were not completed.
 - 9.6.4. If an office-bearer has not completed the number of hours work stated in their position description, and any relevant position sharing agreement, the MSC, by a resolution passed by a simple majority, may dock a percentage of the honoraria of that office-bearer up to the percentage of hours not worked of those required.

10. Leave entitlements

- 10.1. MSA recognises that any office-bearer that is paid an honorarium will be entitled to annual leave, however:
 - 10.1.1. no more than half of an office-bearers entitlement to annual leave can be taken prior to the end of the first semester; and
 - 10.1.2. no annual leave can be taken during the training period.
- 10.2. The annual leave entitlements for office bearers are:
 - 10.2.1. for individual office-bearers, 10 days pro-rated to their pay fraction; and
 - 10.2.2. for position-sharing office-bearers, half each of 20 days pro-rated to their pay fraction.
- 10.3. Office-bearers must notify the Secretary that they will be taking annual leave at least 1 week before the leave is taken.
- 10.4. Annual leave will not be granted if less than 1 weeks notice is given, unless under exceptional circumstances.
- 10.5. The personal leave entitlements for office bearers are:
 - 10.5.1. for individual office-bearers, 10 days pro-rated to their pay fraction; and

- 10.5.2. for position-sharing office-bearers, half each of 20 days pro-rated to their pay fraction.
- 10.6. For more than one day of personal leave taken in a single calendar week, within one week of returning to work, either:
 - 10.6.1. a medical certificate or statutory declaration must be provided to the Secretary; or
 - 10.6.2. any other written documentation that would explain why personal leave was taken must be submitted and accepted by the Secretary.
- 10.7. All leave allowances for part-time and position-sharing office-bearers are to be calculated on a pro-rata basis.
- 10.8. The Secretary must maintain a record of each office-bearer's leave entitlements and usage.
- 10.9. The MSA recognises that office-bearers are not entitled to unpaid leave.
- 10.10. If the leave entitlements listed above are not sufficient, the office-bearer can request a leave of absence from MSC in accordance with sub-paragraph 36(7)(a) of the Constitution.
- 10.11. An office-bearer must not be placed on a leave of absence without their written consent being presented to the MSC.
- 10.12. If any members of MSA bodies that are not Office-Bearers require leave, they must request prior leave from the voting body of which they are a member.

11. Office-bearers sharing positions

- 11.1. Office-bearers may share honoraria and duties for an office-bearer position in all positions other than President, Treasurer and Secretary, so long as a position sharing agreement is submitted to the Executive in line with the following:
 - 11.1.1. the position sharing agreement is completed, signed, and submitted before taking office; and
 - 11.1.2. the agreement explains:
 - 11.1.2.1 what proportion of hours is to be completed and what proportion of the honorarium is to be received by each office-bearer; and
 - 11.1.2.2 how the duties of the position and honoraria are to be allocated between each person; and
 - 11.1.3. the agreement specifies which office-bearer is to hold the vote, and if applicable be the chairperson, for any bodies that the position is a member of; and

Note: The office-bearers may agree to rotate who is to hold the vote by meeting.
 - 11.1.4. the agreement specifies the arrangement between the office-bearers in regards to reports to MSC; and

Examples: The office-bearers may agree to submit reports either jointly or separately.
 - 11.1.5. the agreement reflects any previous written agreements made prior to the election of the office-bearers; and
 - 11.1.6. the agreement may be adjusted at any point with the written consent of the office-bearers.
- 11.2. Position sharing office-bearers must not receive their honorarium until they have signed and submitted the agreement specified in regulation 11.1.
- 11.3. If part of an office-bearer position becomes vacant, then either:
 - 11.3.1. it may be filled in accordance with subclause 42(4) of the Constitution; or

- 11.3.2. in the case of an office-bearer position that is being shared by three or more people, the remaining office-bearers may opt to fill the vacancy by increasing their own workloads by written agreement submitted to the Executive within 14 days of the vacancy.
- 11.4. A permanent proxy exists between the vote holding position-sharing office-bearer and the non-vote holding position-sharing office-bearer, for all MSA bodies unless the vote holding position-sharing office-bearer submits a valid proxy in accordance with the Standing Orders of that body.

12. Office-bearer meetings

- 12.1. Office-bearers will be required to attend office-bearer meetings scheduled by the Secretary or Executive.
- 12.2. The topics of office-bearer meetings will include but not limited to the following:
 - 12.2.1. what each office-bearer is working on, including the projects and campaigns their department is currently undertaking; and
 - 12.2.2. ways in which office-bearers can help one another in each other's work; and
 - 12.2.3. any problems or grievances office-bearers may have.
- 12.3. The office-bearer meetings will be held on a regular or semi-regular basis.

13. Election of members to Executive

- 13.1. The Secretary is the returning officer for all elections of members of the Executive under paragraphs 24(1)(d)-(e) of the Constitution.
- 13.2. The returning officer must:
 - 13.2.1. conduct an election for each position as soon as practicable after 1 January of each year; and
 - 13.2.2. when a vacancy arises, conduct a by-election for that position as soon as practicable.
- 13.3. All members of MSC eligible to vote in an election must be given a reasonable opportunity to nominate and vote.
- 13.4. To nominate for election, an eligible member must:
 - 13.4.1. nominate themselves for election; then
 - 13.4.2. be seconded by another eligible member.
- 13.5. If only one member is nominated for the position, the returning officer must declare the member elected to the position.
- 13.6. If more than one candidate is nominated for a position:
 - 13.6.1. a secret ballot must be held using the optional preferential method of election; and
 - 13.6.2. only the members of the MSC eligible to hold that position may vote.
- 13.7. If there is a tie between 2 or more candidates after the distribution of preferences, the returning officer must, as soon as practicable, either:
 - 13.7.1. conduct a further election to determine which one of those candidates is to be elected or eliminated; or
 - 13.7.2. with the agreement of those candidates, determine by lot which of them is to be elected or eliminated.
- 13.8. The returning officer must, as soon as practicable, declare and give notice of the election results to all members of the MSC and the Executive Officer.
- 13.9. Before the Executive can meet, there must have been an opportunity for the election of the members listed under paragraphs 24(1)(d)-(e) of the Constitution.

14. Misuse of position

- 14.1. Office-bearers and members of MSA bodies are not to make use of any MSA resource for personal matters.
- 14.2. Office-bearers and members of MSA bodies in their capacity as members of the MSA must not campaign for any party or organisation whose aims are not relevant to students, as determined by the MSC or other voting body they are a member of, and must not make use of any MSA resource for that purpose.
- 14.3. Office-bearers and members of MSA bodies must uphold the policies of the MSA and their Department, and may campaign on any issue that affects students or the MSA.

15. Breaches of these regulations

- 15.1. MSA recognises that it is the responsibility of the MSC to determine whether or not an office-bearer or a member of a MSA body has breached the Constitution or the regulations, and to decide on the appropriate disciplinary measure that is necessary for such a breach.
- 15.2. Any member of the MSC can move a motion alleging that an office-bearer or member of a MSA body has breached the Constitution or the regulations. However, for the motion to be considered by the MSC:
 - 15.2.1. the motion must include the particulars in writing of what the office-bearer or member of a MSA body has alleged to have done or failed to do in breach of the Constitution or the regulations; and
 - 15.2.2. the motion must include the proposed disciplinary measure to be taken if the resolution is passed and specify the length of such a measure if it is appropriate; and
 - 15.2.3. the motion must be distributed to all members of the MSC at least forty-eight hours before the meeting; and
 - 15.2.4. the wording of the motion cannot be modified once it has been distributed to all members of the MSC; and
 - 15.2.5. the office-bearer or member of a MSA body must be given a reasonable opportunity to make written submission to, attend and be heard at that meeting.
- 15.3. If the MSC passes a resolution that an office-bearer or a member of a MSA body is in breach of the Constitution or the regulations, the resolution must include at least one of the following disciplinary measures in the resolution:
 - 15.3.1. a warning; or
 - 15.3.2. direction to the office-bearer or member of a MSA body to complete a certain task or tasks; or
 - 15.3.3. censure; or
 - 15.3.4. suspension, docking, reduction or removal of honoraria if they are a paid office-bearer; or
 - 15.3.5. removal from office in line with sub-paragraph 46(1)(f) of the Constitution.
- 15.4. The MSC, by a resolution passed by a simple majority, may suspend, withhold or dock the honoraria of an office-bearer for up to one week for the following breaches of these regulations:
 - 15.4.1. failure to have a report submitted and accepted by the MSC on two or more consecutive occasions; or
 - 15.4.2. failure to submit a report to Lot's Wife on two or more consecutive occasions;
 - 15.4.3. failure to have their yearly goals submitted and accepted by the MSC by the second MSC meeting of the year; or

- 15.4.4. failure to have their annual report submitted and accepted by the MSC by the second last MSC meeting of the year.
- 15.5. The MSC cannot suspend, withhold or dock the honoraria of an office-bearer for more than a week at a single meeting of the MSC for the breaches listed in regulation 15.4 of these regulations.
- 15.6. The MSC, by a resolution passed by an absolute majority, may suspend, dock, reduce or withhold the honoraria of an office-bearer for up to two weeks if they are found to be in breach of these regulations, excluding the breaches outlined in regulation 15.4
- 15.7. The MSC, by a resolution passed by an absolute majority, may dock the honoraria for an office-bearer for the MSA training period if they fail to have their handover report accepted by the final MSC of the year.
- 15.8. The MSC, by a resolution passed by a simple majority, may reinstate the honoraria of an office-bearer that has previously been suspended.

16. Modification of these regulations

- 16.1. These regulations may only be altered by a resolution of the MSC passed by an absolute majority, provided that:
 - 16.1.1. the motion must include the particulars in writing of the proposed alterations; and
 - 16.1.2. the motion must be distributed to all office-bearers and members of MSA bodies at least 14 days before the meeting; and
 - 16.1.3. the wording of the proposed alterations must not be modified once they have been distributed.
- 16.2. The pay fraction of each office-bearer may only be altered by a resolution of the MSC passed by an absolute majority, provided that:
 - 16.2.1. the motion proposing the change is distributed to all members of the MSC at least 7 days before the meeting where the motion is to be considered; and
 - 16.2.2. the reason for the change is specified in the motion which must not be due to a breach of the Constitution or the regulations; and
 - 16.2.3. in the case of current office-bearers, the office-bearer is given a reasonable opportunity to make written submission to, attend and be heard at that meeting.
- 16.3. The duties and responsibilities or expectations of each office-bearer may only be altered by a resolution of the MSC:
 - 16.3.1. for the subsequent year, passed by a simple majority provided that, in November or December the office-bearer-elect submits the alterations; or
 - 16.3.2. passed by an absolute majority provided that the office-bearer is given a reasonable opportunity to make written submission to, attend and be heard at that meeting.
