1. Definitions

- 1.1. For the purposes of these standing orders, terms defined in the MSA Constitution and other MSA regulations are applicable to these Standing Orders. In addition,
 - 1.1.1. 'Constitution' means the MSA Constitution
 - 1.1.2. 'MSA Bodies' means a body established by or under the Constitution, and includes the Divisions.
 - 1.1.3. 'Motion' means a proposed decision of the meeting.

- 1.1.4. 'Resolution' means a motion that has been carried by the requisite majority voting in its favour.
- 1.1.5. 'The Chair' means the individual responsible for presiding over meetings of the body, as established by the Constitution.
- 1.1.6. 'Simple majority' means a majority of the votes of the members of the body at the time both present at the meeting and voting. For the purposes of this definition, abstaining is not considered voting.
- 1.1.7. 'Absolute majority' means a majority of the votes of all members of the body at the time, whether present at the meeting and voting or not.
- 1.1.8. 'Leave of absence' means when an office-bearer is granted a period of time off work in line with sub-paragraph 36(7)(a) of the Constitution. The longest leave of absence an office-bearer can be granted is three months.
- 1.1.9. 'Prior leave' means when a member of a MSA body who is not an office-bearer is granted a period of time off attending meetings of that MSA body in line with sub-paragraph 46(1)(e)(i) of the Constitution.
- 1.1.10. 'Agenda item' means a numbered item on the agenda that has been deemed separate from other items on the agenda by whoever compiled the agenda.

2. Status

- 2.1. These Standing Orders are the primary reference to guide MSC meetings and other MSA bodies where relevant. Secondary references may be made to the most recent edition of A.D. Lang's Horsley & Lang's Meetings: Procedure, Law and Practice.

3. Authorising Provisions

- 3.1. These Standing Orders are made under sub-clause 34(1) and clause 59 of the Constitution.

4. Applicability

- 4.1. All meetings of the MSC shall be conducted in accordance with these Standing Orders.
- 4.2. Standing Orders 9.2. and 19.14. are applicable to all meetings of the Executive. The rest of these Standing Orders shall only act as guide for meetings of the Executive.
- 4.3. The provisions laid out in these Standing Orders shall act as a guide for meetings of all other MSA bodies, excluding the Divisions. Other MSA bodies may seek to adopt their own set of standing orders, which will override these Standing Orders unless those set of standing orders prescribe otherwise.
- 4.4. These Standing Orders are effective immediately on adoption or amendment by MSC.
- 4.5. For the purposes of the Constitution and the regulations, these Standing Orders will be considered regulations in all but title.

5. Notice for meetings

- 5.1. The MSA recognises that it is the responsibility of the Secretary to ensure proper notice has been given for meetings of the MSC.
- 5.2. Notice of the MSC meetings must be
 - 5.2.1. given to each member of the MSC by sending it to the email address notified by the member to the Secretary. If no e-mail address has been notified by a member, this obligation will not apply in relation to that member;
 - 5.2.2. posted on the MSA website; and
 - 5.2.3. posted on the MSA noticeboard.
- 5.3. Notice of a meeting must include:

- 5.3.1. the date of the meeting;
 - 5.3.2. the starting time of the meeting; and
 - 5.3.3. the location of the meeting, which must be on University ground and generally accessible to students.
- 5.4. Notice of a regular meeting of the MSC must be provided at least seven days before the meeting.
- 5.5. Notice of a special meeting of the MSC must be provided at least forty-eight hours before the meeting.

6. Scheduling of meetings

- 6.1. The MSA recognises that it is the responsibility of the Secretary to schedule and convene meetings of the MSC.
- 6.2. There must be at least 9 regular meetings of the MSC between February and December each year.
- 6.3. A meeting of the MSC may only be convened if:
 - 6.3.1. the Secretary receives a written requisition by five of the members of the MSC stating the reason for a meeting, or;
 - 6.3.2. the Secretary resolves to call one.
- 6.4. The Secretary can draft a schedule for a series of regular meetings of the MSC. If this meeting schedule is circulated in accordance with standing orders 5.2 – 5.4, the Secretary will no longer be required to give notice for the regular meetings of the MSC outlined in that meeting schedule.

7. Special meetings

- 7.1. Special meetings of MSC are different to regular meetings because only one item shall be set on the agenda. Special meetings are designed to only be convened if the agenda item cannot be deferred until the next regular meeting of the MSC.
- 7.2. On receipt of a written requisition for a special MSC meeting, the Secretary must ensure notice of the special meeting is provided in line with standing order 5. The notice for the special meeting must also include the reason for the meeting being called.
- 7.3. A special meeting shall be conducted as a regular meeting except that only the item referred to in the written requisition shall be set on the agenda. No other item may be considered at the special meeting.
- 7.4. At a special meeting of the MSC, the usual reporting schedule will be suspended.

8. Agenda

- 8.1. The agenda shall be the responsibility of the Secretary.
- 8.2. The agenda and all relevant documentation must be circulated to all members of the MSC at least forty-eight hours before the meeting is to be held.
 - 8.2.1. Additional items can be added to the agenda and circulated to all members of the MSC closer to the meeting at the Secretary's discretion.
- 8.3. If a member of the MSC requests that an item be attached to the agenda at least seventy-two hours before the meeting, the Secretary must attach the requested item to the agenda circulated to all members of the MSC.
- 8.4. Unless the meeting otherwise resolves, the ordering of the agenda will be as follows:
 - 8.4.1. Attendance
 - 8.4.2. Acknowledgment of Country
 - 8.4.3. Confirmation of Agenda Order

- 8.4.4. Confirmation of Previous Minutes
- 8.4.5. Reports
- 8.4.6. Agenda Items of Which Notice Has Been Given
- 8.4.7. General Business
- 8.4.8. Next Meeting

9. Quorum

- 9.1. Quorum for a MSC meeting is the presence in person of a majority of the voting members of the body at the time. For the purposes of calculating quorum, fractions must be rounded up.
- 9.2. Any member who has been granted a leave of absence or prior leave by the MSC will not be considered a current member of the body for the purposes of quorum during the time period they are on their leave of absence or prior leave.
- 9.3. If quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for an MSC meeting, or if quorum is not present at any time during the meeting, then the Chair shall either:
 - 9.3.1. declare the meeting shall continue and that no decisions made by the meeting shall stand unless subsequently ratified by quorum either at that meeting or at a later meeting, or;
 - 9.3.2. declare the meeting ended.

10. Inquorate meetings

- 10.1. If a meeting of the MSC is inquorate then proceeds in-line with standing order 9.3.1 and is later ratified by quorum, the meeting is considered to be like any other meeting of the MSC.
- 10.2. If a meeting of the MSC does not reach quorum then proceeds in-line with standing order 9.3.1 but is not later ratified, the meeting shall still count as a meeting for the purposes of sub-clause 46(e)(i) of the Constitution. For all other purposes, an inquorate meeting of the MSC that is not later ratified is not considered a meeting.
- 10.3. All reports due at a regular meeting of the MSC that fails to reach quorum and not later ratified will have their due date extended to the regular meeting of the MSC, but there will be no further disruption to the overall reporting schedule.
- 10.4. An inquorate meeting ratified at a later meeting of the MSC requires the minutes of that meeting to be tabled alongside any ratification motion.
- 10.5. Motions requiring any type of absolute voting majority cannot be passed during an inquorate meeting of the MSC.

11. Attendance

- 11.1. Members of the MSC are expected to attend every meeting of the MSC.
- 11.2. If a member is unable to attend a meeting, a written apology should be sent to the Secretary before the meeting. For the purposes of sub-clause 46(e)(i) of the Constitution, an apology is still considered a failure to attend a meeting.
- 11.3. Non-members of the MSC who are students are entitled to attend meetings.
- 11.4. Attendance of non-members who are not students is subject to the discretion of the Chair.
- 11.5. Every person attending a meeting of the MSC must sign the attendance form.
- 11.6. It is the responsibility of the Secretary to maintain records of members' attendance, and to provide these records to the MSC if requested by one of the members.

12. Role of the Chair

- 12.1. The role of the Chair is to ensure that the meeting is run correctly and smoothly.
- 12.2. The Chair is responsible for:
 - 12.2.1. the orderly progression of the meeting through agenda items;
 - 12.2.2. the opening and closing of meetings; and
 - 12.2.3. other duties specified in the Constitution, the regulations and these Standing Orders.
- 12.3. Meetings of the MSC shall be chaired pursuant to the Constitution.
- 12.4. The member holding the Chair vacates the Chair if one of the following occur:
 - 12.4.1. the member leaves the room; or
 - 12.4.2. the member declares to the meeting that they intend to vacate the chair.
- 12.5. If the Chair wishes to take part in substantive debate, then they should vacate the Chair.
- 12.6. If the Chair vacates the Chair, then the Deputy Chair will automatically assume the Chair. If the Chair chooses to vacate the Chair and the Deputy Chair is not present, the Chair may choose a member present for whom to pass the chair.
- 12.7. If the Deputy Chair is acting as the Chair of the meeting but the Chair is present and wishes to chair the meeting, the Chair can assume the Chair of the meeting at any point in time if they so desire.
- 12.8. If a member other than the Chair and the Deputy Chair are acting as the Chair of the meeting and either the Chair or Deputy Chair are present and they wish to chair the meeting, they can assume the Chair at any point in time if they so desire.
- 12.9. If neither the Chair nor the Deputy Chair is present at the opening of the meeting, the members present must elect a member to assume the Chair of the meeting.
- 12.10. If there is no Chair of the meeting for any point during the meeting once the meeting has been opened, then the meeting can elect a member to assume the Chair of the meeting. If an election cannot be held, the meeting shall lapse from that moment and cannot be re-opened.

13. Naming by the Chair

- 13.1. The Chair can name a person attending the meeting if the person is guilty of:
 - 13.1.1. interrupting a speaker for a reason other than moving a procedural motion or a point of order or clarification;
 - 13.1.2. speaking or behaving in an intimidating manner; or
 - 13.1.3. behaving in any way disruptive to the meeting.
- 13.2. Any person named three times during a meeting must not be recognised by the Chair, and must immediately leave the meeting. If the person refuses to leave the meeting within a reasonable amount of time after being named a third time, then the Chair may ban the person from attending the next regular meeting of the MSC.
- 13.3. The Chair may withdraw a naming if satisfied that the person named will not disrupt the meeting again.

14. Manner and Right of Speech

- 14.1. Any member desiring to speak shall make known such an intention to the Chair.
- 14.2. The Chair may adopt a progressive speaking list or any other method of order to ensure the smooth running of the meeting.
- 14.3. Once called upon by the Chair, the member may speak.
- 14.4. Speakers may only be interrupted by the Chair, a procedural motion or a point of order or clarification.

- 14.5. The movers and the seconders of a motion have the right to speak first in a discussion about that motion. These first speaking rights may be waived to another person present at the meeting.
- 14.6. Members of the MSC and observers who are students have full speaking rights at meetings of the MSC.
- 14.7. Observers who are not students may be limited speaking rights at the discretion of the Chair.
- 14.8. If three male members have spoken in a row, then priority will be given to any woman who wishes to speak.

15. Formal debate

- 15.1. The meeting may resolve by a procedural motion to conduct discussion around a motion through formal debate.
- 15.2. The order of debate in formal debate shall be:
 - 15.2.1. Mover;
 - 15.2.2. Secunder;
 - 15.2.3. Speaker against, followed by a speaker for, repeated until the list for or against is exhausted;
 - 15.2.4. Mover's right of reply;
 - 15.2.5. No member, with the exception of the mover, may speak twice in formal debate.
- 15.3. In formal debate the following time limits apply, unless the meeting resolves otherwise:
 - 15.3.1. Mover of a motion – 5 minutes
 - 15.3.2. Right of reply, other speakers to motions, movers of amendments – 3 minutes
 - 15.3.3. Other speakers to amendments – 2 minutes
 - 15.3.4. All speakers to dissent in the chair, point of order or point of clarification – 1 minute

16. Voting

- 16.1. As outlined in the Constitution, every member of the MSC shall have a deliberate vote other than the Chair who will have a casting vote.
- 16.2. Voting shall be by a show of hands, except where otherwise provided for in the Constitution, the regulations or these Standing Orders.
- 16.3. The Chair shall determine the result of a vote by asking:
 - 16.3.1. For those in favour of the motion.
 - 16.3.2. For those against the motion.
 - 16.3.3. For those abstaining on the motion.
- 16.4. After a motion is voted upon, the Chair must state to the meeting the number of votes in favour, against and abstaining and then declare whether the motion has been carried.
- 16.5. The number of votes in favour, against and abstaining shall be recorded in the minutes unless a procedural motion to the contrary is passed.
- 16.6. On the immediate request of a member of the MSC, that member's vote shall be noted in the minutes.
- 16.7. A member's vote cannot be noted in the minutes if they do not consent for the vote to be noted.
- 16.8. No person may hold more than one vote at any one time.
- 16.9. A recount of a vote will be held if:

- 16.9.1. it is brought to the attention of the Chair that not every member present took part in the vote;
 - 16.9.2. at least three members request that a recount be held before the Chair has moved to the next agenda item; or
 - 16.9.3. the Chair resolves that the first vote was not conducted in accordance with these Standing Orders and a recount is required.
- 16.10. During the recount of a vote, only those participating in the original vote may participate in the recount. If during a recount the Chair is having difficulty counting votes by show of hands, the Chair may call for a division in which those who voted in favour move to one side of the room and those who voted against move to the other side of the room. Those abstaining on the motion will remain in the middle of the room.

17. Voting by Secret Ballot

- 17.1. The meeting may resolve by a procedural motion to conduct a vote by secret ballot.
- 17.2. If a vote is to be conducted by secret ballot, the Chair will act as the Returning Officer and ballot papers must be provided to all members voting. The members must then indicate on their ballot whether they are 'in favour', 'against' or 'abstention' before submitting it to the Chair.
- 17.3. When voting in a secret ballot, members must be provided with a space to fill their ballot in private if they do not feel the secrecy of their ballot will be maintained by voting in the room in which the meeting is being held.
- 17.4. The Chair must allow members at least two minutes to complete and submit their ballot vote. If all of the votes are submitted in less than two minutes, the Chair may proceed to begin counting as soon as the final vote has been submitted.
- 17.5. The Chair must count the ballot in a room other than the room in which the meeting is being held.
- 17.6. The Chair must allow any member to observe the counting of the ballot if they wish.
- 17.7. The Chair may limit the number of non-members who can observe the counting of the ballot.
- 17.8. Observers to the ballot count cannot handle the ballots at any point any time.
- 17.9. The Chair shall determine the formality of the ballot votes. If a member writes some variation of the options outlined in standing order 17.2 but the intention of the vote is clear, the Returning Officer must allow the vote to stand. If the intention of the vote is not clear, the Returning Officer must consider the vote an abstention on the motion.
- 17.10. If a member fails to submit their voting ballot, they will have considered to have abstained on the motion.
- 17.11. Once the ballot has been counted, the Chair must state to the meeting the number of votes in favour, against and abstaining and then declare whether the motion has been carried.
- 17.12. A recount of a secret ballot may only be conducted if at least three members request that a recount be held before the Chair has moved to the next agenda item.

18. Types of Majorities

- 18.1. Any motion requires only a simple voting majority for it to be carried, unless the Constitution, the regulations or these Standing Orders specify otherwise.
- 18.2. For the purposes of calculating voting majorities, fractions must be rounded up.
- 18.3. Any member who has been granted a leave of absence or prior leave by the MSC will not be considered a current member of the body for the purposes of voting majorities during the time period they are on their leave of absence or prior leave.

19. Proxies

- 19.1. Voting members of MSC can proxy their vote. However, the person they proxy to must:
- 19.1.1. be a student;
 - 19.1.2. not be a full-time member of the staff of the MSA or the University;
 - 19.1.3. in case of autonomous departments, belong to the same autonomous background as the position to which they are proxying for; and
 - 19.1.4. in the case of Divisional representatives on MSA bodies, be a member of the governing body of the Division to which they are proxying for.
- 19.2. For a proxy to be enacted, a proxy request must be submitted to the Secretary in writing at least one hour prior to the meeting and must contain:
- 19.2.1. who is giving the proxy;
 - 19.2.2. who is to be the proxy (in the case that more than one person is named as proxy, listed in order of preference);
 - 19.2.3. date and/or meeting effective until; and
 - 19.2.4. the signature (electronic or otherwise) of the elected member.
- 19.3. A proxy request submitted less than one hour before the meeting or during the meeting can be accepted, but only if the MSC passes the appropriate procedural motion by a simple majority.
- 19.4. A proxy has the same rights as an elected member, with the following exceptions:
- 19.4.1. A proxy cannot vote to amend these Standing Orders; and
 - 19.4.2. A proxy cannot proxy.
- 19.5. Proxies shall not be counted towards quorum.
- 19.6. For the purposes of standing order 19.5 and 29.2, the following will not be considered proxies:
- 19.6.1. where the non-voting holding position sharing office-bearer attends on the behalf of the vote holding position-sharing office-bearer; and
 - 19.6.2. where the proxies are for Divisional representatives.
- 19.7. There will be no limit on the number of proxies allowed at a meeting of the MSC.
- 19.8. There will be no limit on the number of times a member can proxy during their term.
- 19.9. A proxy is suspended during the time that the original vote holder is present at the meeting, until the time when the original vote holder leaves the meeting. In addition, if a vote-holder submits a proxy list with proxies listed in order of preference and a proxy higher preference on the proxy list enters the meeting whilst someone lower on the proxy list is already holding that vote, the proxy with the higher preference on the proxy list will assume the vote.
- 19.10. A permanent proxy exists between the vote holding position-sharing office-bearer and the non-voting holding position-sharing office-bearer for the MSC unless the vote-holding position-sharing office-bearer submits a valid proxy in line with these Standing Orders.
- 19.11. A permanent proxy exists between the members of the governing body of a Division for the Divisional Representative vote on the MSC. The President of the Division may submit a proxy list for that Division in order of preference to determine who hold the vote if the appointed vote-holder is not present. Otherwise, if there is more than one member of a Division's governing body present at the meeting and none of them are the appointed vote-holder, whichever member was first in attendance will receive the vote.
- 19.12. For the purposes of sub-clause 46(e)(i) of the Constitution, a proxy is considered a failure to attend a meeting, with the following exceptions:

- 19.12.1. where the non-voting holding position sharing office-bearer attends on the behalf of the vote holding position-sharing office-bearer; and
- 19.12.2. where the proxies are for Divisional representatives.
- 19.13. Any member of the MSC who is currently on a leave of absence or prior leave cannot proxy their vote during the time period that they are on a leave of absence or prior leave.
- 19.14. No proxies will be accepted for sub-committees of MSC, including the Executive.

20. Motions

- 20.1. All proposed decisions of the MSC must be in the form of motions.
- 20.2. Motions must be affirmative in nature.
- 20.3. All motions must be put in writing and submitted to the Chair before being spoken to. The Chair may refuse to recognise unwritten motions.
- 20.4. All motions must have a mover and a seconder. If a motion does not receive both a mover and a seconder, the motion will lapse.
- 20.5. If the Chair chooses to move a motion, that motion does not require a seconder. However the Chair cannot move financial motions or any motion that is deemed by a member present to be contentious. The Chair cannot second any motion while they are presiding.
- 20.6. The Chair may rule out any motion that is:
 - 20.6.1. inconsistent with the Constitution, the regulations or these Standing Orders;
 - 20.6.2. not within the scope of the meeting;
 - 20.6.3. disrespectfully worded, ungrammatical or ambiguous;
 - 20.6.4. too similar to a motion already being discussed or a resolution passed at a previous meeting;
 - 20.6.5. either directly or in effect, constituting either a negative of a resolution already passed at the same meeting, or attempts to reverse the result of a motion lost when voted on at the same meeting;
 - 20.6.6. contradictory to a resolution passed at an earlier meeting and that has not been rescinded;
 - 20.6.7. not relevant to the item of business to which it intended to relate and the business for which the meeting was convened; or
 - 20.6.8. otherwise out of order.
- 20.7. A mover or seconder of a motion may withdraw their moving or seconding at any stage before the motion is voted upon.
- 20.8. A motion may be withdrawn by the mover without the consent of the seconder but in such event, the seconder shall have a primary option to move the motion as originally proposed.
- 20.9. The mover or seconder of a motion may decide to amend the wording of the motion at any time before it is voted upon, as long as both the mover and the seconder are in agreement about the amendment.
- 20.10. Before putting any motion to a vote, the Chair shall read it or cause it to be read to the meeting.

21. Foreshadowed motions

- 21.1. A foreshadowed motion is a motion moved that is contradictory in meaning or intent to a motion that is being discussed.
- 21.2. A foreshadowed motion can only be moved in between speakers.

- 21.3. Foreshadowed motions shall be considered in the reverse order in which they were foreshadowed, unless the Chair resolves otherwise.
- 21.4. If a foreshadowed motion is passed, the motion it is foreshadowing lapses unless the Chair rules that that motion and the foreshadowed motion are not mutually exclusive.
- 21.5. There will be no limits on how many foreshadowed motions can be moved during a meeting, so long as it is not in breach of standing orders 20.6.1 – 20.6.8

22. Amendments

- 22.1. An amendment is a proposed change to a motion by either inserting or removing word/s from the original motion.
- 22.2. An amendment can only be moved in between speakers.
- 22.3. All amendments must have a mover and a seconder. If an amendment does not receive both a mover and a seconder, the amendment will lapse. The mover and the seconder of the original motion cannot move or second an amendment to that motion.
- 22.4. The Chair may rule out any amendment that:
 - 22.4.1. is a direct negative of the motion;
 - 22.4.2. would lead to the motion being ruled out for one or more of the reasons outlined in standing order 20.6; or
 - 22.4.3. is otherwise out of order.
- 22.5. When an amendment is moved, the mover and seconder of the original motion amend may decide to accept the amendment in which case the amendment is incorporated into the motion. However, both the mover and the seconder must agree for the amendment to be accepted.
- 22.6. If an amendment to a motion is not accepted by the mover and seconder, the amendment will be discussed and voted upon. The amendment will be considered before the original motion is scheduled to be voted upon and if the amendment is carried, the original motion is in effect amended and will then be voted upon in the amended form.
- 22.7. Amendments shall be considered in the reverse-order in which they were moved, unless the Chair resolves otherwise.

23. Rescission of Resolutions

- 23.1. A resolution passed by MSC can be rescinded at a later meeting of the MSC. However for a rescission of a resolution to be considered at an MSC:
 - 23.1.1. the motion rescinding the resolution must be distributed to all members of the MSC at least forty eight hours before the meeting; and
 - 23.1.2. there must be reasoning for the rescission, in writing, attached to the rescission motion distributed to all members of the MSC.
- 23.2. No motion for rescission of any resolution of the MSC shall be carried unless the members present vote affirmatively to rescind the resolution with the same type of majority needed to carry the original motion.
- 23.3. If a resolution has also prompted an action that cannot be reversed, then that resolution cannot be rescinded.
- 23.4. If a rescission motion is lost, it may be moved again at a later meeting.

24. Procedural Motions

- 24.1. A procedural motion is a motion that relates to the conduct of meetings.
- 24.2. A procedural motion can be moved at any time during a meeting.
- 24.3. A procedural motion requires only a mover and not a seconder.

- 24.4. A member can only move a procedural motion outlined in standing orders 24.9.1 – 24.9.9 if they are yet to speak in the discussion or debate about that agenda item.
- 24.5. A member can only move one procedural motion per agenda item in a meeting.
- 24.6. If a procedural motion is moved in a meeting and is not carried, the same procedural motion can still be moved at a later agenda item in the meeting.
- 24.7. Once a procedural motion has been moved it must be put to a vote, unless the procedural motion concerns dissent in the Chair.
- 24.8. Members cannot abstain from voting on a procedural motion.
- 24.9. There are many forms of procedural motions that can be moved during a meeting of the MSC, and they are as follows:
 - 24.9.1. that the motion/s now be put;
 - 24.9.2. that the speaking list be closed now / at the end of the next speaker;
 - 24.9.3. that the speaking list be re-opened;
 - 24.9.4. that the speaker no longer be heard;
 - 24.9.5. that a time limit be placed on speaker/s / not be placed on speaker/s;
 - 24.9.6. that a time limit be placed on agenda item/s / not be placed on agenda item/s;
 - 24.9.7. that the meeting be adjourned;
 - 24.9.8. that the meeting move onto the next item on the agenda;
 - 24.9.9. that the meeting shall move into formal debate;
 - 24.9.10. that the meeting shall consider a motion in General Business that was not included on the agenda;
 - 24.9.11. that the minutes reflect only the result and not the vote tally of the next motion/s to be put;
 - 24.9.12. that the meeting accept a late proxy request;
 - 24.9.13. that the meeting shall move in camera; and
